

GARDNER A CANDIDATE

Congressman Will Seek the Republican Nomination

FOR GOVERNOR IN MASSACHUSETTS

Gov. Foss Won't Talk About It—Will Mean Real Contest in Bay State

Hamilton, Mass., Aug. 12.—Congressman A. P. Gardner announced last night from his summer home here his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor of Massachusetts in the primaries next month.

Several politicians said it looked as though Gardner's entry into the fight was too late. Gardner is a hustler, however, and works swiftly when he starts after anything.

Governor Foss has made one of his characteristic shifts, or "deviations," as he calls them. He isn't talking for publication.

When asked yesterday morning what he had said about the Gardner candidacy, Gardner stated that Congressman Gardner might become a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, he declined to comment. Except to laugh merrily and exclaim "the more the merrier." Those in his confidence, however, declare that his previous public declaration in regard to Stevens and McCall holds good. He would like to see Gardner or anybody else enter the field, so that there may be a real contest that will carry out the spirit of the direct primary law.

PROTEST ON SCHOOL TAX.

Catholics Now Support Parish Institutions.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 12.—Three sessions of the convention of the American federation of Catholic societies were held yesterday, starting with a business meeting in the auditorium. While visiting Catholics number some thirty thousand, the business of the gathering is in the hands of about five hundred delegates. The big convention, which was inaugurated on Sunday by the celebration in St. John's Cathedral of solemn pontifical mass by Cardinal Gibbons and a sermon by Archbishop Keene, was featured in the afternoon by a parade of various societies in which more than 15,000 persons took part, and in the evening by a sacred concert. Among the things to be discussed during the convention are religious teaching in public schools and the problem of taxing Catholic citizens to maintain public schools when they are already maintaining parochial schools. Bishop McPaul's solution for this is:

1. Let Catholic schools remain as they are.
2. Let no compensation be made for religious instruction. Our principle is, let the pastor take care of the flock and live by the flock.
3. Let Catholic children be examined by a state or municipal board, and if Catholic schools furnish the regular education required, let the state put down the cash.

DIVIDE NATION INTO SIXTHS.

For Purposes of Physical Valuation of Railroads.

Washington, Aug. 12.—In making a physical valuation of railroads, the interstate commerce commission will divide the United States into probably six territories. Each will have its own headquarters, which will report to headquarters here. In addition to commission headquarters, the headquarters of the eastern territory will be in Washington. Headquarters of the other divisions have not been definitely selected, but one probably will be in Chicago, one in the South, likely at Atlanta, Ga., one and perhaps two in the middle West, and one on the Pacific coast, probably at San Francisco.

Paris, Aug. 12.—France yesterday gave back to Russia the great bronze bell taken from the cathedral at Sebastopol and brought to France as part of the spoils of the Crimean war. It has been in one of the towers of the cathedral of Notre Dame, Paris.

The bell weighs three tons. It was formally presented by a representative of the French ministry of fine arts to the Russian ambassador yesterday afternoon. It will shortly be sent to St. Petersburg.

McFalls, the Maine youth who was tried by the Boston Red Sox a few seasons ago, is now pitching remarkable ball in the International league. Many players in this league say that New York will make a mistake if they do not take him before Aug. 29.

Utterly Wretched

Nervous Prostration Long Endured Before Remedy Was Found.
Miss Minerva Reminger, Upper Bern, Pa., writes: "For several years I had nervous prostration, and was utterly wretched. I lived on bread and butter because my stomach would not retain anything else. I took many remedies, but obtained no relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, when I began to gain at once. Am now cured."

Pure, rich blood makes good, strong nerves, and this is why Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and enriches the blood, cures so many nervous diseases.

Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

LITTLE RELIEF FOR KANSAS.

Rains Much Lighter Than in Other Corn Belt States.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 12.—High temperatures and conditions of drought still prevailed over Kansas and Oklahoma yesterday, and with no promise of relief in at least the next twenty-four hours the crop situation continued to grow more serious.

Light showers sprinkled various portions of Kansas yesterday, but while Missouri, Illinois and Iowa were deluged with rain the moisture that fell within the borders of the Sunflower state was of too little consequence to afford genuine relief. The temperature in nearly every city of the state was in excess of 100 to-day.

Two storms swept Iowa last night and early to-day, and at Des Moines nearly three inches of rain fell. Crop experts predicted that with a little more rain the Iowa corn crop might be 75 per cent. of normal.

In Missouri, rain began falling at daybreak yesterday and continued for several hours. The mercury dropped 15 to 20 degrees.

Representative Mondell may try to bring it up in the House. He told the committee yesterday that, if true, the charges should be investigated by the department of justice.

TO IMPEACH GOV. SULZER

Resolution Charges "Willful and Corrupt Conduct in Office"

FRAWLEY REPORT IS ADOPTED

Charges Falsification, Speculation, Trading Executive Approval for Votes, Etc.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 12.—The report of the Frawley legislative committee was adopted by the legislature early this morning and a resolution to impeach Governor Sulzer for "willful and corrupt conduct in office and for high crimes and misdemeanors" was offered in the Assembly by Majority Leader Levy.

Shortly after the assembly was called to order last evening, Majority Leader Levy announced he would introduce a resolution impeaching Governor Sulzer "for willful and corrupt conduct in office and for high crimes and misdemeanors."

Levy said he would ask that consideration of the resolution be deferred until to-day.

The conclusion of the Frawley committee are that Governor Sulzer falsified under oath his campaign account; diverted some of these contributions to the purchase of stock; speculated in stock at the time that as governor, he was earnestly pressing legislation against the New York Stock Exchange, that he punished legislators who opposed him by vetoing their bills; that he traded executive approval of bills for support of his direct primary measure and did everything in his power to conceal proof and obstruct the Frawley committee to bring it to light.

The committee report also recommended that the legislature take steps to punish for contempt in refusing to testify, Louis A. Sarecky, who acted as Sulzer's confidential secretary during the campaign and Frederick L. C. Cox, well, alleged to have been the governor's representative in some of the stock transactions.

CAPTURE CASTRO'S RELATIVE.

General Torres Castro Made Prisoner By Government Troops.

Caracas, Venezuela, Aug. 12.—General Torres Castro, a relative of former President Castro, was captured on Aug. 8 by the government troops commanded by General Corrales, Sayago and Bustamante, according to an official communication issued yesterday. Several of General Torres Castro's officers, who had fled to the mountains of Macuro after the defeat of Castro's adherents on July 28 in the attack on the government forces in the city of Macuro also were taken prisoners. Fighting continues in the state of Tachira.

The army of government troops which was formed at the capital to fight the revolutionists, arrived at Maracaibo on Friday, under the command of President Juan Vicente Gomez. The United States cruiser Des Moines was due to arrive in Venezuelan waters Sunday.

Monsieur Juan Bautista Castro, archbishop of Caracas, has issued a pastoral letter, instructing the clergy to pray for peace.

COOL, THEN WARMER.

Increasing Temperatures in the East for Last Half of Week.

In the regions of drought, the middle Mississippi valley and the middle and southern plains states, temperatures will continue high during the first half of the week, while during the latter half of the week the weather in these districts will become cooler, with a probability of well-distributed showers. The precipitation during the week will be fairly well distributed.

HOW MULHALL GOT HIS TITLE

Dubbed "Colonel" by McKinley in 1893, He Says

NEVER HELD A COMMISSION

Marshall Denies Intention of Reflecting on Gov. Cox

Washington, Aug. 12.—"Col." Martin M. Mulhall, the self-styled former lobbyist of the National Association of Manufacturers, told the House lobby investigating committee yesterday where he got his title. He acquired it while accompanying the late President McKinley through Ohio in 1893, he explained.

"He dubbed me colonel," Mulhall said. "Were you on his staff?" a member of the committee asked.

"I thought so," said the witness, "but I never had any commission or anything like that."

This statement was at direct variance with Mulhall's explanation before the Senate lobby committee of how he got his title of "colonel." He told the senators that he was a member of McKinley's staff when the latter was governor of Ohio.

The House committee yesterday inserted in the record a letter from Representative Barthold of Missouri, now in Schleier, Germany, offering to answer any questions the committee might propound by cable. He said he could not return to America immediately without endangering his wife's health.

In reference to the charge that he was under the influence of the National Association of Manufacturers, Representative Barthold said:

"As a member of the committee on labor, I have naturally come in contact with J. W. Van Cleave and F. C. Schwedman and also with J. A. Emery and Mulhall, but I never looked upon the latter as anything but a messenger boy, and I never dignified him by any serious discussion of measures pending."

"In the campaign of 1910 my vote against exempting labor organizations from the operation of the Sherman law was made an issue against me by certain labor agitators, and a blacklist was circulated by them in my district in which my name appeared. I brought this fact to the attention of the St. Louis executive committee of the association and I was informed that because of my courageous vote I would have their moral support on election day, but that was all."

Reflections on former Representative James M. Cox, the present governor of Ohio, contained in the Mulhall correspondence were unvarnished, according to a letter from A. E. Marshall of Dayton, O., read to the committee yesterday by Chairman Overman. Mr. Marshall wrote the original letter to Mulhall, which seemed to indicate that Cox, then in Congress, was a member of a real estate combine which was holding up the acquisition of a postoffice site in Dayton. Mr. Marshall, in his letter yesterday, disclaimed all intention of reflecting on Governor Cox.

The committee yesterday subpoenaed H. E. Miles of Racine, Wis., H. R. Towne and S. E. Meade of New York. These men will be examined regarding the formation of the National Tariff Commission association, about which James Emery, Washington counsel for the N. A. M., testified several days ago.

CAN'T APPOINT U. S. SENATOR

Governor O'Neil of Alabama Has no Power to Do So, Is Opinion of Senators.

Washington, Aug. 11.—A telegram was sent the Democratic leaders in Alabama last night by Senator Overman, acting chairman of the Senate judiciary committee, advising them that Gov. O'Neil, in the opinion of Democratic lawyers of the Senate, has no power now to appoint a successor to the late Senator Joseph W. Johnston.

A majority held the governor could call a special election at once, but qualified this by adding there were differences of opinion as to whether it was necessary to call the legislature to authorize a special election.

Word reached Pueblo from Pino, Colo., at midnight that water in the Fountain river reached far beyond the danger point.

The current rumors that Johnny Evers cannot get along with his older players is somewhat substantiated by his recent move of turning Mike Mitchell over to the Pirates.

Pitcher Cashion, the star pitcher of several seasons for the Washington Senators, is not in form this season to pitch, owing to an injured shoulder. He will probably be developed into an outfielder next season.

Spear, the St. Albans pitcher, is doing remarkable work at St. Johnsbury this summer. Saturday he held the strong Littleton, N. H., team to one hit, but lost 2 to 1. It is said that he will enter the University of Vermont this fall.

Woonsocket people are planning to hold a "Connolly day" at Boston some time in the near future. Connolly, the Boston Brave, claims Woonsocket for his home town. Woonsocket people will present Connolly a gift as a substantial testimony of their regard for the outfielder.

In view of the recent slump of the Newport club in the Twin State league, the club directors have released Manager Jerry Donovan, who has had the team in charge ever since the start of the season. Volk, one of the Newport players, has been appointed to fill the position temporarily.

The Bellows Falls Times says: "May-four looks to be the best catcher in the league. He is hitting for almost .300 and a man is taking a chance when he tries to top second on the Greenfield catcher."

It is said that Brennan's leg is in bad shape. The Philie pitcher received injuries to his leg about three weeks ago.

The Chicago Cubs have been stripped of every member of the pitching staff that made the Cubs famous back in the days when Chance led his mates through National league championships and world's championships. A short time ago the Cubs carried in their personnel two pitchers, Reulbach and Overall, who worked regularly and helped land the world's titles. Reulbach was traded a short time ago to the Brooklyn Dodgers for pitcher Stack. Last week the announcement was made that Overall had been released to the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast league. At the time of the release of Overall, the purchase of catcher Hargrave of the Terre Haute team was made by the Chicago team.

The exciting race in the New York state league for first division honors continues. The four clubs are bunched closer than ever before this season. There are but three games separating the fourth and the first club.

Bob Smith, the former Hardwick lad, is looked upon as one of the best pitchers playing ball in New England to-day. Smith is pitching for Keene in the Twin State league. He record three, although blemished by several defeats, shows that he is a remarkable pitcher. In but one game this season has he been touched up freely. In that game 12 hits were off him in 12 innings, losing the game. He leads the league in strike outs per inning. Hardly a game passed but what 10 men fell before his speed and spirit.

All the games that he has dropped this season have been close contests. Saturday's defeat by Greenfield was another hard luck affair. He held Greenfield to one hit and fanned 10 men.

The Washington Senators purchased pitcher Williams of the Helena club of the Union association. The price was $3,000. He will report at the end of the present season.

Or, the young infielder of the Mackmen is considered as one of the most promising utility men in the big leagues. The only chance he had to show his hand this season was when Jack Barry laid off last week.

By next week Marty O'Toole, the high salaried pitcher of the Pirates, is expected to be back in form ready to take his turn on the mound. O'Toole was admitted to an operation for appendicitis some few weeks ago but seems now to have fully recuperated.

Pitcher Cashion, the star pitcher of several seasons for the Washington Senators, is not in form this season to pitch, owing to an injured shoulder. He will probably be developed into an outfielder next season.

Johnny McGraw is saving Texreau for the latter part of the season. He does not think that he works so well in warm weather. Along towards the latter part of the season McGraw will work Texreau to get him into proper trim to win the world's championship.

The Chicago White Sox are going to spend $6,000 more to strengthen their team. Rankin Johnson, a pitcher, has been bought from the Syracuse club. Several major league scouts were after Johnson.

Stack made a good appearance in his debut with the Chicago Cubs. He went to the Cubs in exchange for Ed Reulbach. In his first appearance he defeated Philadelphia, holding them to four hits.

The oft-repeated retirement announcement of Johnny Kling becomes noticeable. Johnny says that this season will be his last in major league ball. He has a thriving billiard parlor at Kansas City, which results in a profitable income for him and keeps him out of the clubhouse of want.

The Chicago White Sox are travelling at a very fast clip. They will bear watching.

It is the opinion of many in New York that Gossett, the recruit Highlander catcher, is a better thrower and hitter than Ed Sweeney, who has been the mainstay of their catching staff for several seasons.

The Grand Rapids club recently announced the sale of Pitcher "Abie" Bowman to the Cleveland club. The price is given as $2,500. He will not report to the Naps until the close of the present Central league series.

Hans Wagner is not yet fit to be out of the Pirate lineup. The old veteran showed up Boston on Thursday. His hitting has been of late on a par with that of any other season in his career. He simply can't help hitting them.

Tommy Leonard, the former Dartmouth athlete leads the Twin state league in stolen bases, having seventeen thefts. Wright of the same team is second with twelve.

According to a rumor, Darby O'Brien, present manager of the Duluth baseball team, has been offered a chance to manage the Toledo club in the American association. O'Brien has been manager of the Duluth club for five years, in that time winning two pennants. His home is in Cleveland.

The best umpire in the Twin state league is said to be Keady, the Lehigh athlete. Keady is big of stature and is ably equipped to ward off attacks aimed at him. He has two years more at Lehigh university, where he plays football and baseball.
